1/2 of attorneys say their firms have no data breach response plan in place.

4 in 5 American law firms have suffered a malicious breach since 2011.

79% of respondents consider cyber/privacy security to be one of their firm’s top 10 risks.

70% of law firms report they don’t know if they have ever been breached.

62% have not calculated the effective revenue lost or extra expenses incurred following a cyber-attack.

30% of firms experience a loss of billable hours.

29% of firms had to replace hardware or software.

18% of firms experience loss or destruction of files.

The average cost of a data breach has grown to $3.79 million.

By 2019 data breaches will cost $2.1 trillion.

Learn how to protect your business:

securityfirstcorp.com 1-888-884-7152 sales@securityfirstcorp.com